

Florida Museum of Photographic Arts Presents:

Portfolio Review Workshop

Saturday, March 13, 2010

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Compose, create and edit unforgettable photographs!

Do you want to understand how to improve your picture making skills or truly clarify the elements that creates good photographs?

Join us at this 2-hour class / discussion group, which will help each attendee develop a greater understanding of the foundational elements that create memorable images. Marcia Treiger, creator and instructor of this class, teaches all courses in the B.F.A. program in Digital Photography at the Art Institute of Tampa.

During the review sessions, each participant's "collection" will be reviewed by the teacher and fellow participants to encourage each other to develop a focused understanding of the basic elements that create profound images.

Materials to bring with you to the review:
6-8 of your favorite b/w or color prints, a note pad, pen and your imagination.

Registration Fee:

$20 for FMOPA members

$30 for non-members

Enrollment is limited to eight participants.

Cancellation Policy: A full refund will be given until one week prior to the review.

To register, call (813) 221-2222.

Marcia attended the Tyler School of Art, Temple University in Philadelphia, where she earned a M.F.A. in photography and graphic arts production. In addition to over 30 years teaching experience at the college level, she has worked as a free lancer; and owned and operated two businesses, a portrait studio, Ultimate Portraits, and a photojournalist-wedding venue called The Art of Wedding Photography.
